'The Peaceable Kingdom' by Edward Hicks:

The picture on the front of the newsletter is one version of 'The Peaceable Kingdom' by the American artist Edward Hicks.

Based on the prophecies of Isaiah, found in chapter 11 verses 6-8, Hicks painted 62 versions of the painting representing the breaking down of barriers between normally antagonistic creatures and the ultimate state of living and working together in peace.

Hicks greatly admired William Penn, a prominent Quaker. He especially esteemed Penn for establishing the 'Treaty of Pennsylvania' with the First Nations people of that area. The meeting which led to treaty agreement is depicted in the left middle ground of the painting.
